

Successful succession solution: NSF acquires four in Liechtenstein active trust companies

NSF has acquired the four trust companies Sedes Treuhand Anstalt, Central-Treuhand-Institut, Cura Treuinstitut and Gestions Anstalt as of September 15, 2023. This secures the long-term future of these companies.

Vaduz. Like NSF, these four companies have been operating successfully in the market for several decades and follow the same business philosophy. "After decades of successful activity, I am pleased to now be able to hand over our companies into competent and experienced hands and thus secure their future," says Cornelia Ritter, previously owner of the companies, expressing her satisfaction with the successful succession arrangement. The services offered by the companies complement each other and offer numerous synergies for customers. Cornelia Ritter and Marzell Beck will continue to work for the companies in a transitional phase in the sense of a professional succession arrangement.

"With the acquisition of the established and renowned trust companies, we are pursuing a future-oriented growth strategy that secures both know-how and jobs in the financial centre," NSF founder Richard Negele is convinced. NSF partner Dr Heinz Frommelt also said: "We can bundle competences and offer an even better service thanks to larger capacities and additional know-how. This will strengthen our position as one of the leading providers of legal and tax services, fiduciary and family office services and asset management in Liechtenstein."

About Sedes

Gestionsanstalt (founded in 1926) and Cura Treuinstitut (founded in 1928) are among the oldest trust companies in Liechtenstein. Central-Treuhand-Institut was founded in 1951 and Sedes Treuhand Anstalt has existed since 1961. The companies employ around 24 people.
